Pippant letter-writers and journa lists, whose dens are employed in the interests of Lecompton, keep asserting that the admission of Kansas under the un submitted Constitution is a fixed fact, a thing already as good as accomplished, that the Administration can and will press it through Congress immediacly. Let not the public be humbugged by these assertions. Winter will close and spring will come and go, and esimmer too for that matter, before the abomnation will have passed over the Senate .ground; the debate will be the most scorching which ever took place in Congress. I predict that before it is closed the most violent Lecomptonist will be ready and willing to withdraw from the conflict. The issue which will be presented to the American people will awaken the popular indignation to a hight, which will make it uncomfortable to face.
